INTRODUCTION.

Thank you for looking through this Keeping Memories brochure.

Often when a loved one passes, some family members wish to keep hold of something to kindle memories. For some they want an item to display in remembrance, it may be something to wear and for others something tactile to hold.

In this brochure we are showing our most popular items, as we do not want to give people too much to consider at this time. However if you or a family member wishes to look at our full offering please visit www.keepingmemories.com

Please contact us if you are looking for something specific which is not listed and we will do our best to assist you.
